

2014 Annual Wildland Fire Investigation Refresher Minden, Nevada May 20-21, 2014

This refresher will include updates from the forthcoming new 2014 FI210 course!

New investigation techniques, procedures & methodology, updated indicators, terminology, report procedures, and documentation procedures. An in-depth look at investigating power lines fires with new CD for each participant

Each morning will be classroom work and in the afternoon will be burn scene exercises to practice your old/new skills and knowledge

Location: Sierra Front Interagency Dispatch Center
2311 Firebrand Cir.
Minden, NV 89423
(Parking is on the dirt lot across from dispatch parking)

Times: May 20-21, 2014, 0830-1630 hrs

Cost: $40.00 for IAAI, NVIAAI, CCAI members and Sierra Front Cooperators.
$50.00 for all others.
Includes "Investigation of Power Line Caused Wildland Fires" DVD, Handouts, and 1 lunch (Wed.) You may pay via Paypal on the NVIAAI website or you can pay at the door with a check. Make checks out to NVIAAI

Equipment: Boots, gloves, clothing appropriate for fire scenes (PPE not required)

REGISTRATION: To register you must contact either Greg Liddicoat or Terry Taylor

Greg Liddicoat 775/781-2929 greg.liddicoat@gmail.com
Terry Taylor 775/720-2329 ttaylor@eastforkfire.org

TO PAY: WITH PAYPAL:

1) Go to www.nviaai.com 2) Click on "Events" 3) Go to May 20 and click on the class link 4) Use the PayPal button to pay with a credit card

WITH CHECK:

Make check out to "NVIAAI" and bring it to the first morning of class